

Careers at General Partitions Mfg. Corp

Join Our Team

At General Partitions Mfg. Corp, we've been manufacturing high-quality, American-made products for over 50 years. Our work is trusted in commercial facilities across the country.

We are dedicated to creating a workplace where employees can thrive, take pride in their work, and contribute to something meaningful. Our team is the foundation of our success, and we believe people are essential to what we are — and what we can become.

Why Work at GP?

We offer a stable, team-oriented environment where accountability, respect, and a strong work ethic are part of everyday operations.

Our team members are expected to show up with a positive attitude, take responsibility for their work, and support each other in meeting shared goals. We believe in learning from challenges, continuously improving, and working together to produce a quality product we're proud to send out into the world.

Located in Erie, PA, we provide opportunities to grow your skills while contributing to a company that values reliability, flexibility, and long-term success.

What We Do

General Partitions Mfg. Corp manufactures a full line of commercial restroom and locker room solutions, including toilet partitions, lockers, shower compartments, and vanities.

We are dedicated to producing durable, high-quality products while remaining competitive and flexible to meet our customers' needs. Our ability to adapt — both to customer expectations and to the day-to-day demands of manufacturing — is a key part of how we operate.

Our Approach

At GP, we believe dedication drives us to create a positive work environment and deliver quality products. Accountability ensures we take ownership of our work, our attitudes, and our results. Adaptability allows us to respond to changing needs and support wherever we're needed, and respect guides on how we treat our teammates and customers every day.

We also believe in working together — cooperating to meet deadlines, supporting one another, and maintaining a workplace built on courtesy and shared success.

Our customers are the reason we are here, and we strive to meet their expectations by being responsive, dependable, and easy to work with.
